MOUNT NELSON HOTEL

THE BRIEF

The Belmond Mount Nelson Hotel underwent an interior revamp for all their common areas and outside terrace, embracing the Belmond DNA and creating an interior design language celebrating the rich history of the Hotel. Our brief was to design new menus for their famous high tea and lunch offerings, as well as activity & social media cards that were genuine and understated, complimenting the new exquisitely restored interiors by “bringing the garden into the hotel”.

THE INSPIRATION

The restored interiors create a feeling of a conservatory, bringing in natural light, filled with indoor plants and botanical themed elements. The menus, activity cards and social media cards derive inspiration from the hotel’s fern and botanical elements, fresh organic vegetables from their garden and the famous Mount Nellie pink.

THE MOUNT NELSON MONOCLE

VOLUME 01 VOLUME

HELLO & WELCOME TO OUR ICONIC, ROSY-HUED HOTEL.

I am delighted that you have chosen the Mount Nelson Hotel as your 'home-from-home' during your stay in the beautiful city of Cape Town. In this, the first edition of the quarterly Mount Nelson Monocle, we hope to inspire and guide you to experience the very best that the city – and our hotel – has to offer.

My family and I only moved to Cape Town last year, arriving from my previous role at Belmont Cap Juba in the Caribbean, and we have enjoyed every minute of discovering South Africa's welcoming 'Mother City'. On my first visit here more than 20 years I immediately felt in love with the city's positive energy, and I hope you will find just as much pleasure in its authentic hospitality, beautiful scenery and marvellous culinary experiences.

But in between exploring the many activities and adventures you'll find across the city and in our hotel, please also do take a moment to pause. For me, part of the magic of Mount Nelson Hotel, our urban oasis, is that each day you can find a quiet corner to enjoy the tranquillity of the property. Find a moment of calm in our rose-scented gardens, or settle into the lounge with that book you've been promising yourself you'll read.

I'm originally from Portugal, so am passionate about good food, and when I arrived at the hotel last year, reinvigorating the hotel's dining offering was top of my to-do list. So I asked around: 'Who are the best chefs in South Africa?' Two names kept coming up, again and again: George Jardine, and Liam Tomin.

Whether finding the luxury of time or enjoying the benefit of our local advice, we are here to ensure you enjoy an unforgettable stay in Cape Town. If I, or any of my team, can do anything to help, please do not hesitate to ask.

Warm regards,

Tiago Moraes Sarmiento
General Manager

MY FAVOURITE...

BEACH... has to be Clifton. It's not far from the hotel and has some of the best sunsets in Cape Town. Compared to the Caribbean, the water is pretty cold though!

VIEW OF THE CITY... is from anywhere on Table Mountain, whether walking, running or taking the cable car to the summit. Having this World Heritage Site in the middle of the city is quite incredible, and is right on our doorstep. Time Out later!

ONE & ONLY HOTEL

THE BRIEF

Our task was to create a luxury brand that embodies Africa's essence and meets global standards for the One & Only Hotel launch in Cape Town. This brand needed to blend seamlessly with the global identity while incorporating an influence of South Africa's culture.

THE SOLUTION

We developed a brand language inspired by Table Mountain and Signal Hill, with a design crafted to resemble influences of a traditional African basket. Drawing from Ndebele art, it offers a unique interpretation of these iconic elements along with vibrant colours, premium finishing, and advanced printing techniques, ensuring that our guest experiences are both luxurious and artistically captivating.

OVERVIEW

The identity has a premium natural feel that celebrates the brands arrival in Africa.

A graphic device weaves itself through all collateral and takes its cues from local African handwoven baskets and a further level of visual interest is added through the graphic style of traditional Ndebele art.

This striking icon is a modern interpretation of the iconic Table Mountain and Lions Head shape.

The illustration has been produced using three different foil block colours onto a dark brown paper stock.

Whilst technically challenging, the final result is a unique interpretation of one of the world's most iconic landmarks.

The richness of the colours, materials and print techniques ensure that the printed collateral is as luxurious as it is artistic.

THE VICTORIA FALLS HOTEL

THE BRIEF

To enhance the guest experience and update both the brand identity and in-room materials while honoring the hotel's rich heritage and architecture.

THE SOLUTION

During the hotel's renovation, we found old photos in the attic, of the Victoria Falls, travelers journeys and the hotel's history. Inspired by these images, we incorporated them into our hotel collateral touchpoints, crafting a narrative that reflects the hotel's past. We selected contemporary colours and designs that seamlessly blend with the building's classic aesthetic, resulting in materials that effortlessly combine tradition with modernity and the upgraded interior designs.

SERVICES & FACILITIES

DINING

The Kuno has a rich heritage when it comes to flavour-rich, traditional cooking. The talented chefs at Mount Camdeboo have been inspired by recipes that date back to a bygone era. Recipes have been reinvented with a light contemporary cuisine touch. These wholesome meals are seasoned with herbs grown on the estate - their roots deep in ancient soils - while the balance of delicious ingredients is brought in fresh from neighbouring farms and suppliers.

Just like the menu, the evening dining venues are varied. One night, guests may be dining under the twinkling Karoo stars (an essential part of the African experience), complete with full course shwari and a dedicated chef cooking right before their eyes. Another night may present guests with a dining experience in a secluded courtyard or alongside a roaring dining room fire. It's a little touch of surprise and a highly enjoyable way in which to absorb the splendour and diversity that Mount Camdeboo has to offer.

A number of dietary requirements are catered for, including: Halal, Kosher, Vegetarian, Vegan.

WEDDINGS & EVENTS

A wedding at Mount Camdeboo is a romantic and relaxed experience where the bride and groom can focus on their special day while the Mount Camdeboo team takes care of the arrangements. Ideal for small intimate weddings, this location offers a beautiful and unique setting in which couples can exchange their vows and celebrate one of the most important days of their lives.

Mount Camdeboo also offers an outstanding conferencing solution, whether the aim is to inspire, incentivise, or to break away from the hustle and the bustle to strategise for the months ahead. The tranquil setting, vast open space and a variety of activities allow businesspeople to get the best out of their teams.

THE DROUGHT IS OVER!

Dear <firstname>,
It was the 49th edition, attracting almost 100,000 visitors and 295 top-notch galleries. And it was astounding. I'm talking about Art Basel in Switzerland, one of the most iconic fairs in the world that we had the privilege of visiting last month. The Leonardo di Caprio Foundation was another highlight of our trip, where South African designer and artist Porty Phefer's sculptures of endangered species made out of recycled materials, sold out very quickly. We also took the time to visit the famous Beyeler Foundation in Riehen, near Basel, an art museum overseeing the collection of Hiljly and Ernst Beyeler. Here we saw famous works by Francis Bacon and Alberto Giacometti.
Experiences like these, inspire us at In Residence to appreciate art on an international level and to share with you, our guest, this appreciation, through the installation of contemporary artworks in our luxury villas and the design of art tours that we have on offer, exploring local artists and galleries in the Cape.
From art tours to helicopter flips and boat cruises, the In Residence, professional concierge team also provides our visiting guests with premium airport transfers, chauffeur services, butlers, private chefs, au-pair, VIP protection services and more. No matter the enquiry, we are always available to assist.
Great news is, the City of Cape Town has abolished "Day Zero" this year and the next, the day when the city's taps run dry. The consistent rain over the past few weeks means that the drought is officially over! On a final note, we have just launched our brand new website and expanded our luxury property portfolio. Please follow this link if you'd like to have a look: www.inresidence.co.za
